

From Head to Toe By Eric Carle

Invite the children to do an activity with you in a large space where they can bend, kick, and wiggle.

If you don't have this book you can learn the words and lyrics to the song on the you tube video below

Read the story From Head to Toe by Eric Carle and do the animal movements with the children, "I am a gorilla and I can thump my chest. Can you do it?"

If you do not have the book you can use pictures of other animals, animal flash cards, print outs, or magazine cut outs.

Say what the animal is and what the animal can do "I am a dog and I can wag my tail can you do it?" along with the children pretend you are wagging your tail. For non mobile infants caregivers can demonstrate the movement and touch the body part being moved (Head, neck, shoulders, arms, hands, chest, back, hips, knees, legs, foot, toes).
