

Acrostic Name Poems

Have each child write their name vertically on a piece of paper. For each letter in their name, they will come up with a word or sentence that describes them. They can decorate their paper when they are done and hang it up on the wall.