
A great way to encourage your school age children to learn about their peers!

How to make:

Write a variety of questions on a plastic ball.

How to play:

Have your children gather in a circle, you can start by answering a question and then tossing to a child across from you. Whichever question their thumb lands on or is closest to is the question they answer. Continue tossing until all the children have had a turn.